

Thomas Jefferson to James Monroe, February 3,
1802, from Thomas Jefferson and James Monroe
Correspondence, Transcribed and Edited by Gerard W.
Gawalt, Manuscript Division, Library of Congress

Thomas Jefferson to James Monroe

Feb. 3, 02.

Will you be so good as to deliver the inclosed letter to Prince Rusploli, to whom I should have sent them before he left this place, but was prevented by indispensable occupations, as I know he is to call on you, the omission can be supplied; the object of the letter being to have him attended to at Monticello, should he be gone, or not go that rout, let them be sent to Monticello, as they respect some other matters.

The Senate received a recruit (Mr. Bradley) the day before yesterday. They yesterday discharged their committee on the Judiciary bill, and will this day read it to a 3d time & pass it. Health & happiness. Th. Jefferson

FC (Jefferson Papers, Library of Congress).